

Reflective Questions

1 Samuel 8

1. Read through the passage a couple of times.
2. What do the principle players in this drama want? What emotions underlie their desires? E.g. Samuel, the Lord, the People
3. What complaint or challenge to their opponent's credibility do they have?
4. What options does each player have?
5. Reflect upon a situation from your own life where the way forward is unclear or conflicted. What can you do?
6. The Lord twice says to Samuel, "Listen to them." Take some time to listen to your own internal voices. Journal what you hear. Talk to the Lord about what you observe.

Reflective Questions

1 Samuel 8

1. Read through the passage a couple of times.
2. What do the principle players in this drama want? What emotions underlie their desires? E.g. Samuel, the Lord, the People
3. What complaint or challenge to their opponent's credibility do they have?
4. What options does each player have?
5. Reflect upon a situation from your own life where the way forward is unclear or conflicted. What can you do?
6. The Lord twice says to Samuel, "Listen to them." Take some time to listen to your own internal voices. Journal what you hear. Talk to the Lord about what you observe.