

Belly of the Fish

The church purchased 8 round tables in December. They came packaged in square cardboard boxes. That cardboard, along with hot glue and staples, was used to create the fish. It measures 8 feet long by four feet in diameter. It was designed to come apart in three sections so that I could transport it out the studio when needed.

